Poor hires do more than drain your time and energy – they disrupt your business in multiple ways. The effects can be even greater for small companies.

56% of small business owners have settled for a candidate who was not as qualified as they would have liked.

62% of small business owners have made a wrong hire.

69% of small business owners who have hired the wrong person experienced a loss of time.

34% estimate wasting more than 50 hours hiring the wrong person.

The biggest impacts of a bad hiring decision are lower staff morale (38%), lost productivity (36%) and monetary cost (25%)*. Frustrated 73%, Stressed 47%, Discouraged 36%.

Small business owners who have hired the wrong person before feel:

89% of small business owners say the hiring process is time-consuming.

61% wish they had found the right person for the job.

11% are currently hiring an outside service to help them recruit.

Source: Monster.com

THE COSTS OF A BAD HIRE CAN BE BIG FOR SMALL AND MIDSIZE BUSINESSES

USE TIME WISELY TO AVOID BAD HIRES

Source: Monster.com

Sources:
- Monster.com
- Robert Half